

BONALDO

Lamina, Miss Lamina

Designer: Mauro Lipparini

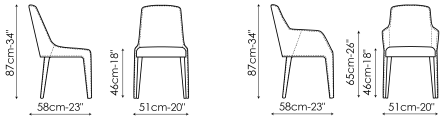

Comfortable looking thanks to the fully leather-upholstered and padded body, the Lamina collection is distinguished by rounded corners that give originality to the ensemble and refined sartorial details that highlight the excellent quality of the processes and materials used. The structural stability is ensured by the solid seat surface that secures and stabilises the two side edges of the chair. Lamina is also available in a version with armrests (Miss Lamina), or the stool version (Lamina too), like a wader standing on his four legs, characterised by the cosy hug of the backrest which embraces the seating. Both the chair and the stool are upholstered in emery-leather, with stitching and edges in the same shade.
