

BONALDO

River

The headboard is the true visual focal point of the River double bed, soft and suggestive: the side “wings”, continuation of the front part, are a decorative element, quite cosy. It has a great customisation potential, thanks to the choice of numerous fully removable covers, available in fabric, leather or eco-leather. A bed perfectly at ease in environments with different aesthetic characteristics, which feels “at home” both within traditional furnishing solutions and when combined with contemporary design elements. It is the details that characterise a piece of furniture such as the River bed: it is the refined quality of the details of the workmanship, the materials used and the range of finishes available. Harmony is the aesthetic value of reference: the pleasant elegance of the ornamental lines of the headboard is matched by the sobriety of the bed frame and the lightness of the metal feet, available in different colours and finishes.
