

BONALDO

Blush

Essential in its form and appearance which are emphasized by the design of the double blade base, Blush surprises thanks to the style of the front section, marked by furrowed traces in slight relief that give the appearance of "vibrating". The straight and curved lines of the abstract pattern, which follow one another in a variable rhythm, both mirror and at the same time emphasize the natural grain of the wood, enhancing the different tonal nuances and the chiaroscuro depths in a perceptive "trick" revealed by the name of the accessory: this decoration is a subtle aesthetic tool that causes the sideboard to appear dark red in colour.
